WE'RE MORE THAN A CAFÉ!

Kindred Kitchen is a social enterprise that provides job training to individuals experiencing homelessness, chronic poverty, or other barriers to employment. Trainees are given the opportunity to learn the technical skills of food preparation along with the soft skills of workplace success, such as problem solving and customer service. By the end of our training program, participants have the skills and confidence they need to pursue stable employment.

When you dine or cater with us you are supporting this vital program and bringing hope to our trainees for a brighter future.

"I highly recommend this program to anyone interested in the culinary arts. Everyone is so respectful, and very positive. Jon is a great trainer and really communicated with me a lot. Even though I graduated, I miss being there."
